19. ABSTRACT (Continue on reverse if necessary and identify by block number)
The Army Communicative Skills Program is a recent effort by the Army to improve the writing, speaking, and reading effectiveness of all Army personnel. This report describes the program, the writing standard it mandates, the programs of instruction it offers, and its precursor, the Army Writing Program. The report also evaluates the potential of the program and considers its relevance to the missions of the U.S. Army Research Institute. (SD)
